

John Clancy Founder and CEO

John Clancy is the founder and CEO of Galvia, an AI powered decision intelligence platform that draws actionable insights from enterprise data. Since 2017 Galvia (formerly known as Chatspace) has been working with some of the World's largest companies including Nestlé, Medtronic and Atos.

As a serial entrepreneur John is continually identifying new opportunities to make AI accessible to every organisation, big and small.

In 2022 he was appointed a board member of the Enterprise Digital Advisory Forum (EDAF) to advise and work with the government of Ireland to drive industry adoption of artificial intelligence.

John has won numerous awards for growing companies in different industries. He has a passion for creating successful businesses, building enduring business relationships, value selling, and leading teams.
